

Student Seminar:
MSc Sustainable Heritage
Tuesday 8th November 2016
G01, UCL, Central House, WC1H 0NN
18:00 – 21:00

- 18.00 Opening remarks by Course Director Kalliopi Fouseki
- 18.15 Richard Hefford-Hobbs
Where does the state of the art in modern manufacturing stop, and the artisan intangible cultural aspects start within traditional English Gun making?
- 18.30 Yiqin Kong
Balancing heritage significance with environmental sustainability in residential listed buildings.
- 18.45 Irene Martina
The heritagisation process at cross-border scale
- 19.00 Eva Hroncekova
Extinct building features – the future of historic buildings?
- 19.15 Deborah Ault
Dust monitoring and analysis: How is science being translated into practice?
- 19.30 Keri Parkinson
The capture, recording and reuse of knowledge within traditional building projects.
- 19.45 Wine Reception

Everybody welcome!

Register via Eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/student-seminar-msc-sustainable-heritage-tickets-28453906400>